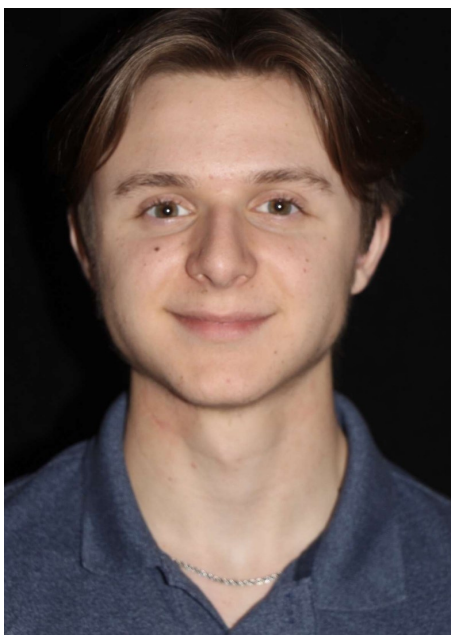
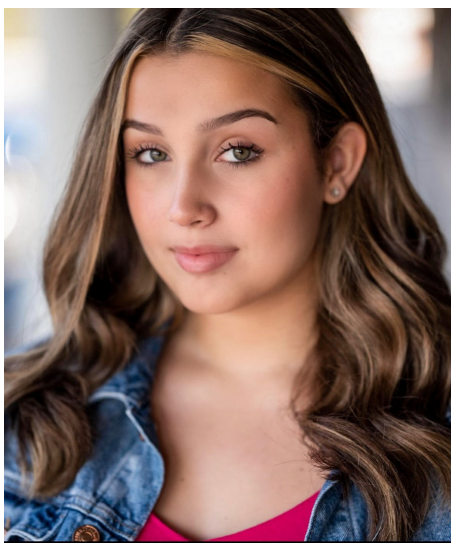
AXELROD PERFORMING ARTS ACADEMY

Meet the Cast



Sam Cusson (Gomez Addams) is debuting in his first production with the Axelrod Performing Arts Academy since The Bard at Bell Works. Sam has been seen, most recently, performing in other productions such as The Glass Menagerie, A Chorus Line, which awarded him a nomination for Best Leading Actor in a Musical for the current 2022 Basie Awards, Into the Woods, A Midsummer Night's Dream, which also subsequently awarded him another nomination for Best Leading Actor in the current 2022 Basie Awards, Chicago, Shrek, and many others. Following The Addams Family, in Sam's near future, is the original off-Broadway production of Camp, A New Musical at Theatre Row NYC. Sam would like to thank Director/Choreographer Michael LeFleur, Music Director Michael Gilch, Diana Grover, Dennis Tolentino, Sara Tomas, and the entirety of the cast and crew of The Addams Family for making this production/experience possible.



Giada Garcia (Morticia Addams) is delighted to return to the Axelrod stage with this wonderful cast in Addams Family. She was last seen in Axelrod's production of SpongeBob The Musical as Sandy Cheeks. Giada attends Howell High School where she is a Level III Junior Actor in the Fine & Performing Arts program and enjoys singing with their One Voice A Capella group. She continues her acting training with Jennifer Greenberg with Moment to Moment Creative Collaboration. Recent Credits include: Descendants (Maleficent), Godspell (Sonia), Bring it On (Truman Cheerleader), & Wizard of Oz (Tinman). Thank you to Michael LaFleur and Michael Gilch for their wonderful direction and encouragement! Also a big thank you to Wendy Roman for your continued support. Break legs to the entire cast!

Juliana Hanary (Wednesday Addams) is excited to be cast as Wednesday in Axelrod's production of The Addams Family! Juliana made her theatrical debut Goldilocks in Shrek the Musical when she was 8 years old. Juliana is 12 years old and lives in the Navesink area of Middletown. This is her 2nd pre-professional show with Axelrod. She played The Mayor of Bikini Bottom in Axelrod's production of The Spongebob Musical. Juliana has played Michael in Peter Pan, Annie in Annie, Charlie in Charlie and The Chocolate Factory, the Queen in Cinderella, and numerous other roles. Juliana would like to thank her friends and family for all of their support, and a big thank you to director, Michael La Fleur, along with the entire Axelrod cast and crew.

Micah Schachet-Briskin (Uncle Fester) is absolutely thrilled to be back on the Axelrod stage performing as Uncle Fester alongside the incredible cast of The Addams Family. He was last seen as Patrick Star in APAA's production of Spongebob The Musical. His roles as Jimmy (Almost, Maine) and as Amos Calloway (Big Fish) earned him a Basie Award Nomination and a Paper Mill Playhouse Rising Star Award Honorable Mention. Other favorite parts include Paul (Moon Over Buffalo) Kenickie (Grease), Archie (13 the Musical), Snoopy (You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown), and Billy (Big the Musical). He is currently dual-enrolled at Brookdale and CUNY Hunter Colleges, earning degrees in both Theater and Communication Media Studies. Micah would like to thank his family and friends for supporting him and his passion.

Brennan Boyce (Pugsley Addams) is thrilled to be playing Pugsley Addams in Axelrod's production of The Addams Family. He thanks Axelrod for this great opportunity. Past roles include Olaf in Frozen, Mr. Krabs in Spongebob, Bert Healey in Annie, Jesus in Godspell, Young Ebeneezer in Scrooge and LeFou in Beauty and the Beast. Brennan has trained and studied with Axelrod Performing Arts Theater Company, Howell PAL Theater Company, the Artist Collective Troupe and CHAOS Theater Company. Brennan would like to thank his biggest fans - his family and friends for all their love and support always. To the cast and crew - Break a leg!

AXELROD PERFORMING ARTS ACADEMY

Meet the Cast

Sealth Grover (Lucas Beineke) is happy to quickly find himself back home with Axelrod and this talented cast, under the direction of the amazing Michael LaFleur. He recently exited this stage the end of March when the curtain closed on the critically acclaimed The Bridges of Madison County, directed by Broadway's Hunter Foster. Sealth was honored to perform as Paolo, alongside Broadway's Kate Baldwin, Aaron Lazar and Bart Shatto. Last December, he was SpongeBob in Axelrod's production of The SpongeBob Musical. Recent credits include Into the Woods (Jack), A Midsummer Night's Dream (Lysander), Annie (Rooster), Godspell (Judas), Seussical (Horton) and Vortex: A Film Anthology (Intern/Bartender), also working as Production Assistant, which is currently streaming on Amazon. He can next be seen in Camp, A New Musical (Cubby), opening on Theatre Row NYC this August. Sealth would like to thank the entire production team and his family for their unending support.

Ava Giglia (Alice Beineke) is making her debut performance with the Axelrod Academy Players in The Addams Family. Ava is a current 2022 Basie Award nominee for Best Leading Actress in a Musical for her portrayal of Diana Morales in A Chorus Line. Her other recent credits include Mean Girls (Janis), Chicago (Velma), The Glass Menagerie (Amanda), and others. Next, she will be joining the off-Broadway cast of Camp, A New Musical at Theatre Row NYC this summer. Ava would like to thank Micheal LeFleur, Micheal Gilch, Dennis Tolentino, Sara Tomas, Diana Grover, and the entire cast and crew of The Addams Family. As always, Ava would like to thank her family and friends for their unending support.

Aman Tolia (Mal Beineke) is an 18 year old Senior at Holmdel High School and has been acting since the 5th grade. Performing in countless school, community, and professional shows, Aman has developed a true passion for theatre. Some of his roles include Lumiere (Beauty and the Beast), Sebastian (The Little Mermaid), Dill (To Kill a Mockingbird), Lord Farquaad (Shrek), Will Parker (Oklahoma), and Squidward (Spongebob). He would like to give a special thanks to his friends, family, and the very talented production crew who helped this amazing show come to life!

Maximilian Oster (Lurch) is thrilled to be in his first performance on the Axelrod stage! His recent credits include Camp, A New Musical (Baxter) which is set to open off-broadway on Theatre Row this summer, The Music Man (Harold Hill) Puffs (Oliver Rivers), and many others. Max has been acting and singing since he was 7 and has been in countless shows in the Monmouth county area and beyond. Max would like to thank Michael LaFleur, Michael Gilch, Dennis Tolentino, Sara Tomas, and all of the other staff at the Axelrod for this amazing opportunity! Follow along on Instagram @maximilianoster_

Kara Kube (Grandma Addams) has been involved in a few other shows, "Matilda" (Little kid ensemble), "Oliver" (Charlie Bates), "My Favorite Year" (Leo Silver), and "School of Rock" (Freddy). She loves being a part of musicals and shows and has loved performing since a young age. Kara hopes to be able to go to a theatre arts school and make a career out of her passion for the arts. Grandma Addams is by far Kara's favorite role and she is so excited for everyone to come see this amazing show!

Kelly O'Keeffe (Ancestor Abigail), 14, is so excited to be performing in her first show with Axelrod! She has recently been in Spongebob (Mrs. Puff), Guys and Dolls (Ensemble), and several showcases and choir perfomances. She is enrolled in the theater and vocal academy at Matawan High School.

Lilakoi Grover (Ancestor Flapper) is happy to be home again on Axelrod stage with this wonderful cast and grateful to learn from the talented Michael LaFleur. She just graced this stage last month in Gabriel Chajnik's Something's Coming, alongside the professional Axelrod Contemporary Ballet Theater, which she has performed with as an Axelrod Performing Arts Academy dancer, since its inception in 2018. She is also a competitive dancer for 10+ years. Lilakoi is enjoying venturing into the theater world, first doing so performing in Axelrod's The Spongebob Musical. AXCBT professional ballet performances include The Nutcracker Rocks (Android), A Midsummer Night's Dream (Puck), Alice in Wonderland (Dormouse) and The Jungle Book (Little Wolf). She is on stage again this August in AXCBT's The Lost Princess of Oz. Lilakoi thanks the entire production team and her family for their unending support.

Charlotte Wells (Ancestor Flight Attendant) is an 8th grader at Matawan-Aberdeen Middle School. She is delighted for her debut at the Axelrod Performing Arts Center. After making her first appearance at the age of 7 in Villagers Theater's Sweeny Todd, she has been seen many times on the Matawan Middle School stage as a member of the ensemble and as part of the Summer Theatre Workshop. Most recently, she portrayed the role of Sandy Cheeks in The Spongebob Musical with MAMS Players. She has really enjoyed this experience with Axelrod, and hopes to work with them in the future. She'd like to thank the production staff and fellow cast members for all they've done to make this a great show!

Casey Bracken (Ancestor Bride) is a freshman in Keyport H.S. She is thrilled for her second show with APAA! She has had a blast and learned so much. Casey has also performed with APAA in "The SpongeBob Musical" as a featured dancer. Past shows include "Godspell" with Keyport H.S., Aladdin Jr. with Keyport Central and "Spamalot!" with Spotlight Players. Casey has been dancing for 12 years, studying at APAA and studying tap with David J.V. Meenan. Casey would like to thank Michael, Mike, and the rest of the production team for an amazing experience! Break legs to the cast and crew. Love to my family and always remember– "When you're an Addams, you do what Addams do or die!"

Adriene Sanchez (Ancestor Aphrodite) has been acting since the age of seven. Her roles have included Electric Skate #2, Security Guard #1 and a sardine in the Axelrod PAC production of The Spongebob Musical (2021); Miss Hannigan in Annie (2019); Martha in A Christmas Carol (2018); Willy Wonka in Charlie & the Chocolate Factory (2018); Peter Pan in Peter Pan (2018); Snow White's mother in Twisted Disney (2017); doorknob and caterpillar in Alice in Wonderland (2017); and, numerous roles in Free to be You and Me (2017). A seventh grader at Bayshore Middle School, Adriene loves musical theater and hopes to one day perform on Broadway, television and film.

Thomas Kortenhaus (Chef Ancestor/Death) is excited to be in his first Axelrod performance. His recent credits include Frozen Jr. (Olaf), Scrooge, Children of Eden (Young Abel), The Little Mermaid and other local performances. Tommy has been acting and singing for as long as he can remember and is excited to make another appearance onstage. Tommy would like to thank Michael La Fleur, Michael Gilch, Dennis Tolentino, Sara Tomas, and all the other amazing staff at the Axelrod for this opportunity! Tommy would also like to thank David J.V. Meenan for all his support and guidance.

Dylan Hahn (Ancestor Caveman), a 7th grader who is performing his first show at Axelrod, is thrilled to make his Addams Family debut as the Caveman. Dylan has done community theater with credits that include: The Little Mermaid as of King Triton, Frozen as King Agnarr and Weselton and Elf Jr. as Michael Hobbs. He also has been taking singing lessons for three years and, when not performing, enjoys art and writing. Dylan loves the family of friends he has made in the musical. He also wants to thank his director for being patient and making the show possible. Dylan can't wait to see what is coming in his future for his acting career and is sure that Axelrod will be part of it.

Rachel Walker (Ancestor Courtesan) is in 7th Grade at Hazlet Middle School. She is greatly anticipating her performance with Axelrod's The Addams Family. Her list of successes includes Cove Road School's Bots! in 2020, Raritan High School's The Little Mermaid in 2018, various recitals at Perna Dance Center, and is more than happy to be back on the stage! Rachel is also in Hazlet Middle School's chorus and she loves to practice singing everywhere she goes. Rachel would like to thank her family, friends, directors, stage management, and team for making this amazing show possible.

Nadia Hynes (Ancestor Ophelia) This is Nadia's second performance on the Axelrod stage. She was previously cast as Mrs. Puff in the musical Spongebob. Other credits include Damn Yankees as a fan girl and reporter, Bright Star ensemble, & Tarzan as Snipes at her high school where she is currently a senior and part of the Thespian and Master's choir organizations. Thank you to my family, friends and castmates for all of the continued support and encouragement.
